

FOR YOU LITTLE LOVE

For you little love
I would capture
the moon,
the air,
the stars,
the sky.

I would gently
place them in a box,
wrap them with paper,
ribbons and lace.

For you little love
I would give this precious gift to keep for always
as your very own.

For you little love
I would give a kiss
as you take this treasure
from my hands.

Open the box
breathless,
you hold its brilliance.
Then without a sound,
you throw them back
into the cool darkness.

In your wisdom
I hold you
and together we watch
the surrounding darkness
turn into the gift
of the beautiful night.
